PENN GOT 6, CORNELL 5

Close Game at Philadelphia Yesterday.

WAS A STRENUOUS GAME

Chicago Beat Michigan 2 to 0, in the Middle West Championship—Indians Had Fun With Georgetown.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—Pennsylvania yesterday defeated Cornell in their annual football game by the score of 6 to 5, the narrow margin of a goal deciding the contest. It was the most stubbornly contested game that has been seen on Franklin Field this season and it was only after Cornell had been weakened by substitutions that the Pennsylvanians were able to cross the Ithaca goal line. For one hour the local eleven had been held in check and really outplayed by the visitors and it began to look as though Cornell was to be the victor, but after the visitors had made their touchdown and the eleven had changed goals, Pennsylvania, aided by the stiff wind, gradually forced the ball down the field for a touchdown.

In the first half, Cornell outplayed Pennsylvania except in kicking. The visitors gained 123 yards by rushing against 72 for Pennsylvania. Twice they had the ball within striking distance of the Quaker goal line, but each time Pennsylvania braced and took the ball. The score does not correctly show the relative strength of the two eleven, for Pennsylvania's fumbling habit prevented the local eleven from scoring at least two additional touchdowns. Twice they pushed the ball from the midfield to within five yards of the Cornell goal, but on both occasions there was a fumble and the Ithaca boys kicked the ball out of danger.

Thompson, left guard of Cornell, was sent to the side line in the opening half for deliberately striking Stevenson. This was the only player ruled out of the game, although Umpire Edwards more than once cautioned men on both teams.

The line-up and summary: CORNELL

HARVARD DISTURBED.

Article Concerning Yale Not a Representative Opinion.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 30.—President Charles W. Eliot of Harvard officially repudiates the article published in the newspapers from advance sheets of the Harvard Graduate Magazine, declaring that it was time for Harvard to break with Yale and that Harvard men

A REGULAR CIRCUS

Trying to Give a Little Girl Cod Liver Oil.

An interesting incident was told in Rickett & Wells' drug store the other evening.
A man came in and bought a bottle of Vinol and while waiting for change engaged the clerk in conversation.
Said he: "We were told to give our little girl cod liver oil. I bought a bottle and took it home. We had a regular circus trying to get the child to take it. Then it did not agree with her at all, the oil upset her stomach. She did not get any better, so I told the doctor how we had failed, and he at once recommended your Vinol, saying that it contained all of the curative, healing and strengthening properties of cod liver oil without a drop of oil, and that children all love its taste."
"I took home a bottle and we began to give it to our child right away. She said it was delicious and wanted more. Almost from the first dose we noticed a change, and she has gained flesh, strength and appetite and sleeps well every night."
"I don't believe anyone should give a delicate child old-fashioned, nauseating cod liver oil or emulsions when Vinol is so delicious, and it will do so much more good than any other tonic. It is simply a wonderful medicine for weak, puny children, and I am recommending it to my friends."
We guarantee Vinol will make weak, puny children strong, robust and rosy, strengthen and invigorate old people and build up the run down, tired and debilitated as nothing else can. If it fails we willingly return every dollar paid for it. Rickett & Wells, Druggists.

could not "adopt Yale methods and be true to their ideals." President Eliot declines to enter into any discussion of the article but says: "The Graduate Magazine is not an official organ of Harvard, and any statement made in its columns cannot be accepted as official." Since the publication of the article many persons have been under the impression that the ideas and suggestions embodied therein have come from President Eliot and contain his ideas on the subject of football, especially as it is played between Yale and Harvard. Such an impression is as far from being correct as it is possible to be. A man very close to President Eliot says that the matter contained in the article neither represented faculty opinion nor the opinion of the president.

SCHWAB TO BE SENATOR.

Is Beginning Campaign for Election in 1909.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Charles M. Schwab is planning to become senator from Nevada, succeeding Francis M. Newlands, whose term expires in 1909. This announcement comes from Nevada, where it is understood that Schwab in seeking the senatorial prize has already obtained a residence, has invested heavily in new gold fields, and is building a home.
Mr. Schwab will be very strong by 1909, when the legislature will be elected that will name Newlands' successor. The state's population will be at least double from 1900 to 1910, so Schwab will be no newer citizen than half the state.
Nevada especially needs mills and smelters to handle its ore, and Schwab promises these. If he gives them he will be regarded a philanthropist, the father of the new Nevada, and anything he asks will be his.

The railways of Russia open for traffic on Jan. 1, 1906, had a total length of 36,452 miles, of which 31,299 are in European Russia. Of these, 24,311 miles belong to the Government. The whole network of Russian railways consists of twenty-eight lines connected with each other, and of eleven isolated lines. To the extent of about 60 per cent they are worked by the Government, the remainder being in the hands of public companies.—London Engineer.

HAMILTON, IN PARIS, TALKS

Returns From Bad Nauheim Springs, Denies He Was Hiding

IS PREPARING A REPLY

German Blow to Equitable—Receiver Threatened for Life Assurance Society in That Country—McCurdy Resigns.

Paris, Dec. 1.—A correspondent has found Andrew Hamilton, who was confidential representative of the insurance companies at Albany, and had half an hour's talk with him concerning his plans and his answer to the requests of the Armstrong insurance committee that he give orders to his agents in New York to surrender his papers to the committee and that he go to New York to testify.

Mr. Hamilton arrived here a few days ago from Bad Nauheim Springs, where he had been taking the cure under the care of doctors. He looks fairly well. His face is ruddy, but he still complains of the effect of his ailment, and remains under the doctors' treatment pending their determination as to whether it will be necessary for him to resume the cure at the springs.

When seen by the correspondent Mr. Hamilton was with one of his intimate friends who is familiar with his affairs and who explained some details which Mr. Hamilton did not wish to be publicly discussed at this time. Mr. Hamilton did not seek to avoid the meeting. On the contrary he said that he had not the slightest desire to conceal his whereabouts, although owing to his continued ill health, and the attention required in making up his answer to the Armstrong committee, he did not desire to see visitors.

Preparing His Reply.
Answering the correspondent's request for a statement concerning his reply to the committee's requests, Mr. Hamilton dictated the following reply:

Mr. Hamilton said this was the only formal statement he would now make, but, continuing his informal talk, he pointed out that it would be manifestly improper to disclose or discuss the nature of his reply before it had been submitted to the committee. Moreover, he was now engaged in framing his reply, so that his work was not yet completed.
"You can say, however," Mr. Hamilton added, "that my answer will be complete. You can also say that President McCall will undoubtedly submit my reply to the committee."

When Mr. Hamilton was asked whether he would return to New York, he said it would depend entirely on the determination of the doctors.
In conclusion, Mr. Hamilton said he hoped to be able to complete and forward his answer in the next few days.

Action in Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 30.—The imperial insurance office has informed the representative here of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York that it will appoint a receiver to administer upon the company's property in Germany in the interest of the German policyholders, unless the company increases its premium reserves invested in Germany, as required by the insurance law of May, 1901.

The company takes the stand that it is not subject to that law since it no longer takes new insurance anywhere in Germany, but the imperial authorities will not accept this explanation, and insist that the company's existing investment in the premium guarantee fund must be increased.
If a receiver is appointed he will take possession of the Equitable's buildings in Berlin and other German cities and administer them, or if necessary will sell them in behalf of the German policyholders.

Justice Peckham's Statement.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The statement made last night by Rufus W. Peckham, justice of the supreme court, regarding his reasons for resigning, has been the basis of the Mutual Life Insurance company, throws an interesting sidelight on the internal strife which exists in that company. The justice said:

"I learned with astonishment and great indignation the facts testified to by Mr. McCurdy before the legislative committee—that the funds of the company had been used to induce legislation, virtually to corrupt legislatures, and that they had been furnished to political parties as campaign contributions, both of which practices I regard as beyond the pale of propriety."
"I expressed my amazement and indignation that President McCurdy's salary had been so enormously increased by a sub-committee, without even a report to the finance committee."
"These things had been done without the slightest knowledge of the board of trustees, as a board, and I do not know that any individual member of that board was aware of them."

McCurdy Resigns.

James H. Eckels May Be His Successor as President of the Mutual.

New York, Nov. 30.—Richard A. McCurdy yesterday resigned as president of the Mutual Life Insurance company at New York. His resignation was accepted by the board of trustees, and Frederick Cronin, treasurer of the Mutual, was named as his temporary successor. While no definite announcement was made regarding the selection of a permanent successor for Mr. McCurdy, it was persistently reported that the presidency of the company had been offered to James H. Eckels, who was controller of the currency during the administration of President Cleveland. Mr. Eckels is now president of the Commercial National Bank of Chicago. Mr. McCurdy's resignation was submitted to the board of trustees in a letter in which he declared that his condition of health

No. 3Straight Talks on Patent Medicines

The "Rexall" Remedies deserve confidence.

As all these remedies are grouped under one name, they must succeed or fail together. There must be no weak links in this chain. One unworthy remedy would mean disaster to the entire plan. If you, for example, purchased the "Rexall" Cough Cure and were not cured by it, how could we expect you to place any faith thereafter in the "Rexall" Dyspepsia Cure or any other member of the "Rexall" family?

You can understand, therefore, why such anxious care was given to finding and choosing the remedies to which the name "Rexall" was given. We have admitted none to this circle until our committee of experts had been convinced by investigation and test that it was the best remedy known to medical science for the ailment it aimed to relieve.

Who should know better than the leading thousand druggists of this country what are, and what are not, efficient medicines?

Remember, the success of our enterprise depends on the merit of each individual remedy. Our reputation, which is our very business existence is at stake. Can you doubt, that in buying a "Rexall" Remedy, you are buying the best that science and experience can give you?

Here are three prominent members of the "Rexall" family:

REXALL "33" HAIR TONIC

The famous Rexall "33" Hair Tonic is composed in chief of Resorcin, Beta Naphthol and Pilocarpin.

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ-killers discovered by a science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which not only destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, but creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the lodgment and development of new germs.

Pilocarpin is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease of the scalp. It is not a coloring matter or dye—it produces its effect by stimulating the scalp and hair follicles to health and active life.

This combination of curatives mixed with alcohol as a stimulant, perfects the most effective remedy for hair and scalp troubles known to-day.

Per Bottle, 50c.

REXALL DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is largely due to the new and successful method of manufacture, whereby the well known properties of Bismuth Subnitrate and Pepsin have been combined with carminatives and other agents.

Bismuth Subnitrate and Pepsin are recognized by the entire medical profession as specifics for acute indigestion or chronic dyspepsia.

The Pepsin used is manufactured under a new process which develops its greatest efficiency. Pepsin not only supplies to the digestive machinery one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid, but it seems to exert a tonic influence upon the glands which supply all the other elements.

The carminatives add properties which promptly relieve pains caused by undigested food. The combination of the whole makes a remedy absolutely invaluable to any man or woman suffering from dyspepsia—and not only a remedy, but a cure which works by gradually rebuilding and stimulating the glands which perform the digestive functions. Package, 25c.

CHERRY JUICE COUGH SYRUP

A new idea in Cough Syrups. This preparation owes its efficiency to the presence of Wild Cherry, Vinegar Squills, Bone-set, Horehound and Syrup.

All of these have been known for a hundred years as remedies for coughs and hoarseness.

In Rexall Cherry Juice Cough Syrup, all of these remedies have been combined by a process of manufacture that has blended them into a perfect medicinal harmony whereby the characteristics of each support and reinforce the others.

The pathological properties of each ingredient does its own particular work in easing the inflamed membranes, loosening the phlegm and setting up a condition of health in the bronchial and nasal passages.

One spoonful will relieve the inflamed membranes and temporarily stop the cough. One bottle will work a cure. It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste—children like it. Per Bottle, 25c.

Look for this Rexall Guarantee on each package: "This preparation is guaranteed to give satisfaction. If it does not, come back and get your money. It belongs to you, and we want you to have it."

Mr. Palmer is a coal and lumber merchant of Langhorne. Miss Powell and Miss Ambler were friends of the family and intended to spend Thanksgiving Day at the Palmer home. Mr. Palmer's house is some distance from the station and the party started down the railroad tracks in order to avoid waiting for a trolley car.

They had proceeded but a short distance when an express train from New York came upon them. Miss Ambler was evidently drawn under the wheels by the air suction and was killed instantly. Her companions were knocked down and had several bones broken. The unidentified man was not of the Palmer party.

Another of those remarkable cures by Cuticura, after doctors and all else had failed, is testified to by Mr. M. C. Moss of Gainesville, Texas, in the following letter: "For over thirty years I suffered from painful ulcers and an eruption from my knees to feet, and could find neither doctors nor medicine to help me, until I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, which cured me in six months. They helped me the very first time I used them, and I am glad to write this so that others suffering as I did may be saved from misery."
